A CANADIAN FOR POPE.

A Prominent American's Unique Suggestion.

OTTAWA 5.—The Free Press of this evening publishes an interview with Mr. Michael Vidal, an ex-member of the United States Congress, now in Ottawa, in which that gentleman expresses the opinion that Cardinal Taschereau stands an excellent chance of being chosen as successor of Pope Leo XIII. Mr. Vidal spent some recent years in Europe, most of the time in Italy. The result of his observation is that the College of Cardinals are strongly opposed to selecting an Italian as Pope Leo's successor, and after pointing out objections to the nomination of Cardinals belonging to other European nations, Mr. Vidal expresses the opinion that the most popular and least objectionable choice that could be made would be a Canadian Catholic Prelate. He points out that Cardinal Taschereau occupies a strong as well as unique position, though he may be regarded as a Frenchman, yet he is a British subject. Though belonging to the American continent he has been brought up under monarchical rule and believes in it. The objections to the election of a French Pope would not hold against Cardinal Taschereau. Though a man of moderate views, he is sufficiently liberal to satisfy more advanced nations. His selection would be a grand compliment to Canada, and I am sure the British government would be pleased to have a loyal subject of Her Majesty chosen to preside over the Catholic world. In fact Cardinal Taschereau would be less objectionable than a native British Cardinal, because an Englishman would be suspected of entertaining prejudices with respect to Irish questions.

The Mormons.

OTTAWA 8.—Dr. Allen, collector of customs at McLeod, who is here, says the Mormons at Lee's Creek will prove good settlers if they don't practice polygamy. On this point he has his doubts. Stenhouse, ex-M. P. of British Columbia, who is favorable to polygamy, has come to live among them and was made an Aaronic priest.

New Judges.

OTTAWA 7.—It was stated this morning on reliable authority that the judgeship for the district of Richelieu has been offered to J. J. Curran, M. P. Justice Oimet being removed to Montreal. Settling a Church Quarrel.

TORONTO 6.—The president of the Toronto Methodist conference, Rev. Mr. Stafford, and Rev. Mr. Stone, chairman, called upon Rev. T. W. Jeffery, pastor of the Western Methodist Church today and advised him to send in his resignation. It is likely that tomorrow a long pending quarrel in the congregation in this church will be settled in some shape or other.

Pushing Forward.

WINNIPEG 6.—The Regina and Long Lake Railway which it was recently stated would be extended to Prince Albert, will also be extended to Battleford via Saskatoon.

The line will be built to Saskatoon next year and be operated by the C. P. R. There is no truth in the report that the Canadian Pacific are to adopt the Crow's Nest Pass.

The Galt Poisoning.

High Tides in the Bay of Fundy.

ST. JOHN, N. B., 5.—The tide in St. John harbor today was the highest known for ten years. In some places the water rose all of 30 feet, submerging wharves and entering and covering the floors of the warehouses on the wharves. Reports from Moncton state that the tide there is the highest known.

That Cardwell Fight.

ALTON, Ont., 6.—The fight between Wm. Stubbs the defeated candidate for Cardwell and Robert Evans of Moss Mills on nomination day because of Stubbs' promising not to run if Evans did not, and not keeping his promise, came up in the court here. Stubbs charged Evans with aggravated assault. Evans was committed for trial but bail was accepted.

A new Milling Firm.

WINNIPEG 7.—The Hastings Bros., and Alex. McGaw have retired from the Ogilvie Milling Co., and will start grain buying on their own account. They intend to erect large flouring mills at Fort William next summer.

Sympathy for the Dismissed Preacher.

TORONTO 10.—The sympathies of Rev. T. W. Jeffery have decided to offer him a public reception shortly.

DUTCH SOCIALISTS.

Make a row at a Roman Catholic Public Meeting.

AMSTERDAM 10.—During a meeting held here to consider a project for the erection of a statue of the Pope, 600 socialists gained admittance to the meeting hall and prevented Abbe Browers from speaking. A fight ensued between the Catholics and socialists. All the furniture in the hall was smashed. The police were compelled to fire, and several of the rioters were wounded. Great agitation continues throughout the city.

Fighting in Africa.

ZAMBEZI 10.—The British steamer which was recently sent to Basamoye, returned here with several Indian traders and their families on board. They report that the town was wrecked. Severe fighting took place on Thursday and Friday and the rebel loss was heavy. Three Germans and two native dependents were wounded. Bushieri subsequently retired five miles inland. It is reported that the looted ivory caravan and brutally maltreated the Manyamawe porters who refused to join him.

Senator Sherman.

OTTAWA 7.—Senator John Sherman, writing to the editor of the Free Press here, in favor of the idea of Canada sending delegates to the proposed congress of American nations to be held at Washington in 1899 adds, "Our government could not, with due respect to Great Britain, hold any formal political relations with the Dominion Government as a necessary result of the dependence of Canada upon Great Britain, but which no doubt could be waived by the parent Government. From what can be learned in official circles no steps will be taken to have Canada represented at the conference."

Crossley and Hunter.

WINNIPEG 10.—Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, evangelists, who have been laboring in Winnipeg the past month with great success, leave for Brandon and other western points tomorrow to conduct services. As a result of their work here, Grace Methodist Church had an accession of two hundred members yesterday. Other churches have also largely increased their membership.

John Bright.

LONDON 10.—Mr. Bright had a shivering fit on Saturday and is in a weak condition.

FOREIGN.

Imperial Federation.

LONDON 6.—Lord Salisbury, speaking at Birmingham, hoped negotiations would be renewed and lead to a successful conclusion of the fisheries dispute. He knew the great desire of the Canadian people was to live on neighborly terms, and hoped a similar feeling of amity prevailed in the States. He also urged a national combination with the colonies for Imperial defence. No fiscal arrangement could be forced upon the colonies. Regarding Ireland he contended it was dangerous to grant the Irish more than provincial chambers. The experience of Quebec showed the province was made too strong and could squeeze money out of the central treasury beyond what was just. He hoped the selection of Sir Henry Norman, one of the ablest servants of the Crown, as Governor of Queensland, would settle the dispute. He had reason to know that Canada would not follow the example of other colonies in urging that the Colonial office accede to the demand for a colonial voice in the selection of governors. On the contrary, Canadian official opinion is believed to incline to the Imperial view, that if a governor is to act as arbitrator between parties he must not owe his position to colonial political factors.

Canada Commended.

LONDON 5.—Lord Salisbury, speaking at Glasgow of the treatment of political prisoners in Ireland, said the Government's action was confirmed by the general practice of mankind, and added that a few years ago there was a half-breed in Canada named Riel who rebelled and attempted to spread desolation and misery in a fruitful and smiling land. It was his second offence, and was he treated according to his maudlin, effeminate doctrine? No. On the contrary, the Canadian Government—a Government representing the people if ever a Government did—simply hanged him. That accorded with the rule in modern societies, and accorded with the action of the Imperial Government in Ireland.

An Infidel's Child Buried.

LONDON 7.—The body of the daughter of Charles Bradlaugh was buried yesterday in Woking cemetery in a wicket coffin. The interment was unattended by any ceremony and with the exception of the silent placing of several wreaths on the grave, no display. Bradlaugh desired to have his daughter's remains cremated, but the crematory was being repaired and the great infidel had to content himself with the old established mode of disposing of his dead.

The Election's Lesson.

LONDON 6.—Although Lord Compton cuts down the Tory majority in Holborn by 600, still the failure of the liberals to carry the seat will be gloomily received. Under ordinary circumstances such a large reduction of the hostile majority would be viewed as a practical Gladstonian victory, but the liberal candidate was so superior to his opponent, and made his canvass on such broad grounds that his defeat at all is a blow to the party's progress. The lesson of the election is that London has not changed its mind on the Irish question.

Fighting in the Sudan.

SUAKIM 6.—The first detachment of British troops arrived today. They were brought from Suva and included 21 officers and 185 men of an infantry regiment and a hundred mounted infantry. As soon as the troops assembled, the Arabs opened fire from the trenches. The British troops returned the fire from the forts and boats, which silenced the enemy. No particulars of the losses have been received.

New Blood.

LONDON 5.—The Hudson's Bay meeting today was long and stormy. Sir Donald Smith's election as Deputy Governor was confirmed. Messrs. Maclean and Russell Stevenson were proposed for the vacancy on the committee. A prolonged and heated discussion took place. Maclean and many other speakers impugned the whole policy of the company and urged that new blood was wanted on the board to meet the altered condition of the Northwest. A show of hands was largely in favor of Maclean though Stevenson was approved by the board.

A Fatal Collapse.

LONDON 5.—Yesterday afternoon the southern wall of McClary & Co's. building left standing after the recent fire, fell in upon a gang of workmen burying three of them. Two were fatally injured, one will recover. A dozen other people were more or less seriously injured.

More English Troops for the Sudan.

LONDON 6.—It is now thought that in view of the premature publicity given to the government's intentions in Egypt, that more English troops will be sent to Suakin before the attack on the Arab portagers is ordered.

Distress in Ireland.

LONDON 8.—It is reported that in various districts of Ireland, in Limerick especially, distress among the agricultural laborers is enormous. Many are asking to be assisted to emigrate to Buenos Ayres.

Phelps and Sir Charles Spoke.

LONDON 8.—Phelps, the American minister, attended the banquet of the Turners' company and replied to the toast "our visit to Sir Charles Tupper" also responded to the toast.

International Sculling Contest.

BRIEHBANK 7.—Arrangements have been made for an international sculling race. Beach, Kemp, Searle, Matheron, Stansburg and Neilsen will compete.

War Correspondent Killed.

SUAKIM 7.—Mr. Wallis, artist and correspondent of the Graphic, while sketching the enemy's works was struck by an Arab shot and killed. In his eagerness to get a good view of the besiegers he approached too near the trenches.

A Famous Horse for America.

Sullivan and Kilrain May May.

BALTIMORE 5.—It having been rumored that articles for a meeting had been signed by representatives of Kilrain and Sullivan, the former was seen and denied that the articles had been signed, but he admitted that there was some foundation for the rumor, and said that the fight, if it came off, would occur within ten weeks, at some point near Chicago.

The WEEKLY HERALD AND ALBERTA LIVE STOCK JOURNAL is the weekly edition of the Calgary Daily Herald. It is distinct from Wednesday's issue of the DAILY HERALD, thus showing a complete arrangement of matter impossible with those so called weekly papers which take the place of the Daily issue upon the days they are published.

W. J. C. ABBOTT, Editor and Manager.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1888.

CONDEMNED BY HIS OWN WRITINGS.

The editor of the Macleod Gazette appears to have a very short memory. While he has been so violently abusing Dr. McEachran, the Veterinary Inspector of Alberta, and attempting to show that that gentleman got the quarantine against American cattle established solely for selfish purposes, he appears to have forgotten that he himself was one of the very loudest of those who demanded that a rigid quarantine should be established. The present editor of the Macleod Gazette was editor of that paper on September the 19th, 1884, when it published the following editorial:—

"At the present time the Canadian grazing country in this section of the Northwest is the only range country in the world which can be said to be entirely free from contagious diseases in cattle. That due precaution should be taken to keep it in this most satisfactory state, is a most vital necessity and of great importance to those owning herds here. It will be remembered that, when first suggested, the scheme of shipping cattle through the Northwest via Maple Creek and the C.P.R. to Montreal and England was received with great favor, and a few shipments were made by that route. Although in some respects this trade, passing as it would, over the C. P. R., and through Canada, would have its advantages, still the few advantages which would have accrued, in a large measure to the C.P.R. and in a much smaller degree to the Dominion, might have been offset by probable ruin to the Canadian trade, was a very imminent danger, and it is well that the Dominion Government realized this in time, and ordered the preventative before the cure became necessary. We publish this week an Order-in-Council, which will explain itself. It will be seen by this, that very strict measures are to be adopted for the protection of the cow industry in this country.

The action of the Dominion Government has been rather severely criticized by a certain portion of the Western American press, all of which criticisms are of a more or less interested nature. It has been declared that the step taken is a selfish one, and again that Canada is afraid of the competition with American cattle. Both suppositions are very wide of the mark. The action taken by our Government is not a selfish one, nor does it originate in a fear of American competition. It is entirely a matter of self preservation. These contagious diseases, such as Texas fever, pleuro-pneumonia, foot and mouth disease &c., are making their appearance with alarming rapidity in the grazing districts of the union. This country is very nearly connected with them by an almost continuous stream of cattle from south to north. The ranching industry here, which is almost in its infancy, is drawing its cattle from a country only separated by an imaginary line. Cattle from Wyoming, Iowa, and other grazing countries, are being driven into Montana in large quantities, and in this way it is a very simple matter for these diseases to be passed on to us. If the shipment of cattle from the Western States through Canada had been allowed to continue, it would simply have resulted in the loss to Canada of the English markets which is of far more importance than the ephemeral advantages afforded by the American traffic.

The Dominion Government have shown themselves very wise in thus affording all the protection possible to Canadian stock raisers, and their promptness in dealing with the matter should receive the warmest endorsement from that class, who are in this way given much greater security for the money invested. We believe that for the safe guards which now surround the stock business in this country and for the rigid quarantine which has been established we are chiefly indebted to Dr. McEachran, who has been an uncompromising advocate for quarantine in the Northwest. By constant representations to the Government, and being seconded by the press, the present measure for the protection of stock raisers has been brought about. The effect of it cannot but be satisfactory, and by a strict enforcement of the quarantine regulations by the proper authorities here and elsewhere, with the earnest and united cooperation of the stockmen, there is no reason why contagious disease should not be kept from this grazing district for all time to come. The veterinary surgeon mentioned in the order in council should be appointed by the Minister of Agriculture, for this district without delay."

It is almost incredible that a paper, which at the time the quarantine was established was so loud in its protestations as to the dire necessity existing for putting it into force, should at the present time so forget itself and all sense of propriety, as to pretend that there never was any necessity for the quarantine and that it was established through Dr. McEachran's influence for his own selfish purposes. On the first of November the Gazette published a violent editorial against Dr. McEachran, from which the following paragraphs have been selected:—"His past actions have been such as to show that his advice to the government is given more with a view to benefiting (as he wrongly thinks) the Wainwright Ranch Co., and consequently himself, than anything else. Dr. McEachran was determined, by hook or by crook, to prevent the introduction of more cattle from the United States, and taking advantage of his official position, he established a ninety days quarantine, as the most effectual way of gaining his ends. How well his plans have succeeded, the results have shown. The cattle trade between Alberta and the United States came to a sudden stop in 1886, and has remained in that position ever since. American cattlemen are now asking for admission to Alberta. They are ready to help develop the country, the granting of their request means more business for the Canadian national road."

"What is the purpose that a cattle quarantine, or any kind of quarantine, is supposed to serve? Is it not to prevent the spreading of any kind of infectious or contagious disease? We doubt if Dr. McEachran, in his wildest flights of falsehood, could seriously assert that these grounds existed to justify the establishment of this one. The real reason was to bar the road against the introduction of more cattle to these ranges."

Was a more outrageous piece of journalistic inconsistency ever seen? In 1884 the Gazette praises Dr. McEachran to the skies for having assisted to secure the establishment of the quarantine. In 1888 Dr. McEachran is branded as an unscrupulous manipulator for the very deed he was previously so loudly praised for accomplishing.

Why this change? Dr. McEachran has stated that it is due to his refusal to back the editor of the Gazette, financially, and to the anxiety of the latter gentleman to secure the abolition of the quarantine, in the interests of a company he has organized for the importation of Montana cattle.

Whatever the real explanation of the change of the Gazette's attitude may be, this fact is clear—the attempt of the Gazette to show that Dr. McEachran for selfish purposes, duped the government into establishing the quarantine, is as outrageous as it is clumsy and it is a very marvel of clumsiness.

ALBERTA IS NOT CLOSED TO SETTLEMENT.

Thanks to the patriotic efforts of the Macleod Gazette to prove that a certain Government official is a thief and a scoundrel, because he has the audacity to object to being bulldozed, a certain portion of the press in the east is proclaiming to the world that Alberta is closed to settlement; being parcelled out in grazing leases upon which settlers are not allowed to locate. We find, for instance, the Montreal Herald which accepts as gospel the yarns published in the Macleod Gazette, sarcastically enquiring:—

"Is it the policy of the Dominion Government to invite and encourage settlement and trade in Alberta, or does Sir John intend to indefinitely seal up that country for the benefit of English cattle barons, and his own parliamentary supporters?"

The Montreal Herald adds, "These ranchmen have now had five or six years start; they have or ought to have made plenty of money out of the Government, and it is time that the magnificent district referred to was opened up to the public, and monopolistic restrictions removed. There is no use building a trans continental railway while keeping one of the best parts of the country closed to settlement."

In Alberta it is scarcely necessary to contradict such humbug as the statement that Alberta is closed to settlement. While such rabid howlers as our Montreal namesake, whose only aim in life appears to be to manufacture grievances against the Government as to its Northwest policy, are trying to turn the tide of immigration away from Alberta, it is time to call upon patriotic papers in the East to deny this falsehood, for such in good plain English it is.

For the benefit of eastern contemporaries, who may feel inclined to place Alberta right before the world, we might explain the position of affairs as it at present actually exists.

When the C. P. R. threw open Alberta to eastern enterprise it was thought that stock raising was the only department of Agriculture, which could be profitably followed here. Consequently the Government felt justified in offering all the inducements in its power to capitalists to invest their capital in the range industry. To guarantee their investment the Government granted them leases, closing the land leased from settlement during the term of the lease. Very soon it was found that Alberta offered exceptional inducement to the settler, and the tide of immigration set in. A demand at once rose for land, and that included in some of the closed leases was squatted upon. Very few of the ranchers did any more than protest and the squatters went to work and improved land they had possession of, as if they had owned it. After a while some of the squatters petitioned for their entries, and an agitation, joined in, if not actually led by this paper, was started in favor of a cancellation of as many of the old leases as necessary and the granting of all future leases subject to settlement. The agitation was completely successful, the government inducing the lease holders to relinquish such of their leases as were desirable for settlement. The government also arranged that all future leases should be subject to settlement. The result is that there is remarkably little land in Alberta which is closed to settlement and but an insignificant fraction of that will ever be any good for anything else but grazing.

It is not likely that the government will require, for some years at any rate, to interfere further with any of the old leases; and if it does, some compensation will have to be allowed the ranchers. They have vested rights, which must be respected. In the meantime there is no reason in the world for the government to interfere with them. The land is not wanted for settlement, is being profitably occupied and is bringing in a revenue to the government for rent. Why then should the leases be interfered with?

The circulation of the falsehood that Alberta is closed to settlement may suit the personal spite of the editor of the Macleod Gazette and the party exigencies of narrow minded agitators in the East; but it is calculated to blast Alberta's splendid immigration prospects for next year and that is more than the people of Alberta can afford to submit to.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

Although the discussion of the liquor question in the Legislative Assembly is unfortunately not going to have the desired result—the submission of the question of prohibition versus high license to the popular vote—it is evident that the time spent in discussing this question has not been wasted. A large majority of the representatives of the people of the Territories, representing the prevailing sentiments of their constituents, because just fresh from the polls, announced themselves fairly and squarely in favor of high license, while a fair portion of the small minority, while not supporting high license, did not actually oppose it. Although the people have not been allowed to express their sentiments through a plebiscite, their voice has been heard through their chosen representatives, and it should morally have as much weight as if expressed through a popular vote. In view of this decided demand for a license system, made on our behalf by our representatives, it is difficult to imagine that the eastern prohibition faddists will allow their prejudice to so far get the better of their respect for liberty and justice as to allow them to attempt to force this horrible humbug, the prohibitory law, upon us any longer. The only excuse Eastern prohibitionists have had to offer for their impertinent interference with the domestic affairs of the Territories has been their claim that a majority of the people of the Northwest was in favor of a continuance of this arbitrary and ineffectual law. They no longer have this excuse to offer, and if they have any modesty, and any respect for the rights their fellow Canadians of the Northwest have a right to enjoy, they will no further interfere. We should then not have long to wait for the abrogation of the prohibitory law, for it has undoubtedly owed its continuance to the continual howling of its possibly well meaning, but certainly bigotted and ill-informed supporters in the Eastern provinces.

As a result of the discussion in the legislature, the liquor question undeniably stands in a better way towards satisfactory settlement than it did before the session and the people of the Territories have good cause to congratulate themselves that such is the case.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance at the public meeting called for this evening to discuss the public library question. The matter should be thoroughly discussed so that the library if established at all will be placed at once on a good sound basis. It is most sincerely to be hoped that those who are interesting themselves in this question will not allow themselves to make the mistake of being satisfied with too insignificant a beginning. The institution, must necessarily have a comparatively modest start, but it would be sheer nonsense to think of establishing a miserable one horse institution such as that suggested at the last public meeting by speakers who thought that a room fifteen feet square would fill the bill. Anything in the shape of a luxurious establishment is of course out of the question; but a comfortable room or suite of rooms could be secured and maintained almost as economically as the dismal den suggested, and would make the institution somewhat attractive. The projected institution, it should be remembered would have two objects in view—to afford means of recreation and study to the naturally studious class; but principally to afford a wholesome resort for those otherwise unemployed, to spend their evenings in. The institution should aspire to be a lively competitor with the saloons and other questionable resorts for the patronage of the youth of the town, and if it wants to be this it must be attractive to a certain extent.

As the question of ways and means will of course be discussed, it would be worth while to consider the advisability of raising a fund by a series of entertainments. A bazaar given under the auspices of the ladies of the congregations of the town churches, with a separate booth devoted to each church, should prove a profitable plan if the ladies could be induced to take it up. The ladies never submit to failure, and if their co-operation could be secured the success of the institution would be assured beyond the shadow of a doubt.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Now that the school board is considering the engagement of a new head master for the Calgary public school it would be worth while considering the advisability of offering inducements in the way of increased salary to secure a superior teacher. The school has always stood well, this year for instance, being credited as "excellent" in all departments, in the report of the Board of Education. As however a change is now being made, there should be no mistake about its being for the better, and the only way to make sure is to offer such a salary as will induce the very best men to apply. The salary of $1,200 a year advertised by the Board, appears to be too small to induce really able men holding good positions in the East to apply, and without a greater inducement is offered, the trustees will find that they will have no applications from really first class men. The new head master should be besides a thorough practical teacher, a gentleman, and if possible a university graduate. There is very little prospect of securing such a man for $1,200 a year. It is a bad policy to attempt to practice too much economy in dealing with educational matters.

AN ASSINIBOIA PAPER ON THE QUARANTINE.

The Moosomin Courier concludes a sensible editorial on the quarantine question as follows:—"We consider that the action of the Government was a very wise one when we reflect upon the immeasurable loss Canadian dealers would undoubtedly have sustained in losing the control of the English markets, as well as the possible admission of disease into Canada, and the devastation of our ranges. Whatever ill feeling the Gazette may entertain for Dr. McEachran personally, it cannot in reason attack him in his capacity as inspector of quarantine for advising a measure that would not only protect our trade with Great Britain, but would preserve our ranges from the inevitable destruction that would follow the admission of American cattle. American papers report that their ranges are eaten out, a result that would naturally follow here if freedom were granted American ranchmen to drive their vast herds over. We believe the decision of the government will be generally satisfactory."

ALL SORTS OF THINGS.

Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, Mayor of Montreal, has returned from England, where he went to float the new city loan to be devoted to public improvements and the converting of over half a million of the old five per cent bonds. Mr. Abbott has been interviewed upon his return. He reported that the new bonds were floated at three per cent, and aided to the interest was "So far Montreal is the only colonial city which has floated a three per cent loan." In this particular she stands next among the colonial cities of the empire, and second to only a few in the United Kingdom, which have done a very little better."

This does not appear to bear out very strongly the statement of the grit politicians that Canada is going to the dogs. Unfortunately for these amiable gentlemen, and fortunately for the country, their pessimistic predictions never come to pass.

Hon. Mr. Dewdney is receiving deserved congratulations for the reduction of Torrens land system fees in the Northwest. Cheap and convenient as the system is, still the fees in the Territories were claimed to be higher than need be. The reduction shows that Mr. Dewdney is alive to the representations which reach him on Northwest affairs. This improvement concerns perhaps the most important of Northwest interests, and comes just in the right time.

The Regina Leader is following out the absurd plan of praising its section of country at the expense of the rest, among other things trying to prove that the Regina climate is superior to that of Calgary. Our Regina contemporary waxes enthusiastic because people in that town are able to discard fur caps. Very few people in Calgary have yet worn furs this year, the writer for instance although in very feeble health, having only worn a fur cap twice as yet this season.

Calgary is bound to be a large railway centre. The C. P. R. at present runs through the town and there are projected two roads to the North and two to the South. Now the Red Deer Valley railway talks of making Calgary its southern terminus. Probably all of these schemes will not mature; but some of them must. The sooner the better.

A correspondent writing to congratulate the Herald upon having inaugurated the movement to establish a public library writes:—"Those really interested in the cause of temperance can do more towards stamping out the vice of drunkenness by assisting to carry out your project than by wasting their time attempting to bolster up the played out fad of prohibition." Our correspondent hits the nail on the head.

THE ASSEMBLY.

MONDAY 3.—The only business of note this afternoon was the number of notices of resolutions to be fired in to-morrow on the liquor question. Every member seems to have a commendable desire to settle the question in his own way.

Mr. Reaman gave notice that he would ask for a humble address for a resolution to the Dominion government to pass an act at its next session giving the Assembly the power to deal with the liquor question.

Mr. Cayley handed in a notice which Mr. Speaker ruled out for being insufficiently explicit, and before the sitting was concluded he read the following:

That whereas the present state of the liquor law of the Territories is undesirable. And whereas it has been decided in the Assembly that it is undesirable for this Assembly to take a vote of the Territories on the question of license or prohibition. And whereas it is thought desirable nevertheless that a vote of the Territories should be taken on the said question.

Therefore be it resolved: That an humble address be presented to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, praying that he may communicate to the Governor General in Council:

That in the opinion of this Assembly, a vote of the Territories be taken on the question. "Shall absolute prohibition of intoxicants in the Northwest Territories prevail or shall a license system be introduced," would be desirable. But that if the Governor General in Council is not pleased to have such a vote taken, then that this Assembly advises that the Northwest Territories should be placed upon the same footing as the provinces of Canada in regard to the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicants.

Mr. Sutherland gave notice of a similar motion, and Mr. Thorburn will move that this Assembly refrain from dealing with the question now, but come prepared to act at next session. Hear, hear, and laughter.

The bill relating to Thomas Christopher West was read a third time, some amendments having been made.

The report of the special committee on an election bill was concurred in.

The following chapters of the revised ordinances were passed in committee of the whole, Mr. Haultain in the chair:—26, holding of lands in trust; 36, masters and servants; 41, legal profession; 43, fees in summary trials, 44, constables; 45, returns of J. P.'s; 48, mortgages and sales of personal property; 49, mechanics' liens; 50, preferential assignment; 51, choses in action; 52, receipts, notes, etc.; 54, distress for interest on mortgage; 55, real property held by two or more persons; 56, compensation for accidents; 58, limitation of action in certain cases; 59, sheriffs.

Committee rose and reported.

The Agricultural Societies' ordinance was considered in committee of the whole, which adjourned to wait for some proposed amendments, the chief of which is the change of the date of the annual meeting to any desired date during January of each year.

Committee rose.

After some consideration of Dr. Brett's medical bill, the House adjourned to Tuesday.

REGINA 4.—After routine today Mr. Tweed presented a petition from the settlers of Medicine Hat, praying for an appropriation to construct another bridge across Ross Creek.

Mr. Secord moved, seconded by Dr. Brett that an address be presented to the Governor in council praying that druggists be permitted to import alcoholic liquor into the Territories in original packages, free from fees. Lost.

Mr. Mitchell, on a question of privilege complained that the report from the committee on privileges and elections respecting the protest against his election was not forthcoming. He complained that delay was an injustice to him.

Mr. Reisman moved that in view of decision already reached by the assembly that the Dominion Parliament be requested to enact necessary legislation to enable the Assembly to deal with the liquor question in the Territories.

Mr. Sutherland moved the following resolution:—“Whereas on the 22nd November this Assembly decided that a vote of the people should be taken on the question of licence vs prohibition; and whereas it has been decided that this Assembly has not the power to make provision for taking such a vote; be it resolved that in the opinion of this assembly a vote of the Territories on the question should be immediately taken; but in the event of provision for taking such vote not being made by the Dominion authorities at the next session of the Dominion parliament it is the opinion of this Assembly that powers similar to those enjoyed by provinces under the B. N. Act in respect of the liquor question should be forthwith granted to this Assembly.

Mr. Oliver pointed out that other provinces only possessed the power of regulating the liquor traffic. They did not have the power of enacting prohibition.

Mr. Ross followed, maintaining his usual position on the question.

Mr. Jelly thought the Assembly should take the vote without any further action.

Mr. Betts accused Mr. Jelly of having voted against submitting the question to the people. He quoted from the journals of the Northwest Council.

The question was put, Mr. Rouleau having previously withdrawn his motion. The division was as follows:

Yous, Haultain, Mitchell, Sutherland, Plaxton, Hocy, Richardson, Neff, Tweed, Cayley, Lineham, Bratt, Betts, Davidson—7.

Nays, Oliver, Secord, Turfiff, Ross, Jelly, Reisman, Thorburn—7.

The House went into committee of the whole on the chapter of the Revised Ordinances respecting schools.

Considerable discussion took place. Judge Macleod moved that the words “Whether such district or portion has been or not either in whole or in part into a Public School District” be struck out.

Considerable discussion took place on this clause, and on the amendment proposed. Mr. Secord moved in amendment that section 36 of the ordinance of 1887 be substituted in lieu of section 37. It was as follows:

In accordance with the provisions of the Northwest Territories Act providing for the establishment of separate schools, it was allowable for any number of the ratepayers whether Protestant or Roman Catholic, the same being a minority of the ratepayers residing within the limits of the public school district to establish separate schools therein by proclamation of the Lieut. Governor, that the same rights, powers, privileges, liabilities and method of government therein provided in the case of public school districts.

The amendment was carried. The House then went into committee of the whole on the bill respecting the practice of medicine and surgery. After consideration the House adjourned.

REGINA, Thursday 6.—Mr. Speaker took his seat at 1:30 and on the order being called for “reports,” Mr. Ross from the standing committee on presented a report setting forth that Whereas, efforts have been made to secure certain privileges from the Dominion Government to a sect called Mormons to induce their immigration to the N.W. T., we desire to recommend to this Assembly the importance of memorializing the Dominion Government to grant no privileges to any sect not accorded to any individual settler.

That a sum of $5,000 be voted from the General Revenue Fund of the Territories and that this House by every means at its disposal press on the Dominion Government the advisability of granting us the

to be used for immigration purposes. With such sums at the disposal of this House, your committee are of the opinion that greater results will be had, both to the Dominion as a whole and to the Territories in particular, than can be had by the expenditure of a like sum under the general immigration scheme of the Dominion.

We would suggest that two permanent officials, selected by this House, be located in Great Britain; also that four agents be appointed by this House, one being from each Dominion electoral district, who shall be located for a period of three months at four of the principal points in eastern Canada and United States, at say Montreal, Quebec, Toronto and Chicago.

That several pamphlets be prepared giving a full description of the various localities suitable for settlement within these vast Territories, believing as we do that it is impossible in a single pamphlet to do justice to the varied natural resources of our Territories.

We have made an estimate of the probable cost of the scheme we propose, as follows:

SALARIES.

Two permanent officials in Great Britain at $10 each per month..... $2 400

Four officials in the east—3 months..... 1 200

TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

Two officials in Great Britain at $5 per day each..... 3 000

Four agents in the East at $5 per day..... 1 800

Official expenses..... 2 000

Preparing and printing pamphlets..... 4 000

Total..... $15 000

House went into committee of the whole on the report and the chairman explained the committee's idea as embodied in the report.

Mr. Tweed expressed himself strongly against any special privileges being given to the Mormons.

The committee rose and reported report without amendments.

Mr. Cayley moved, seconded by Mr. Tweed, for the appointment of a commission to prepare legislation on the following subjects to be submitted at next session: Establishment of a cheaper code of procedure for the collection of small debts, expropriation of lands, married women's property, controverted elections and elections to the assembly.

On motion of Messrs. Sutherland and rett, a copy of the liquor resolution passed on Dec. 4, was ordered to be transmitted to Ottawa.

House adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

The House resumed at 8:30 with Mr. Ross as speaker. He immediately resolved the hon. gentlemen into committee of the whole on the Revised Ordinances, which are being gone through for the second time clause by clause. After considering about a hundred pages, which occupied the time until 12 o'clock, the committee rose and House adjourned.

FRIDAY, December 7.—Mr. Thorburn presented a petition from Broadview, asking that the date in clause 6 of the herd ordinance, when the time expires in which animals may be distrained, be changed from Oct. 30 to Oct. 15.

Mr. Haultain moved, seconded by Mr. Jelly, that on the next sitting day this House resolve itself into committee to consider the supplies to be granted to Her Majesty. Carried.

Mr. Tweed moved, and Mr. Cayley seconded that the appointment of official stenographers of the supreme court in the various judicial districts would be conducive to the interests of justice in the Territories. The motion was carried.

REGINA Saturday 8.—Today's session was probably the most important since the assembly commenced its labours. The bringing down of the estimates, the delivery of an exceedingly good budget speech by the leader of the quasi-government, scathing criticisms of the budget and a long discussion made two interesting sessions.

Mr. Haultain, submitting to the house the estimates congratulated the assembly on performing for the first time one of the most important functions of responsible government—that of voting supplies to Her Majesty. So far as the right of controlling the expenditure and so far as territorial affairs were concerned they had practically responsible government, although their position as a branch of the Interior Department and the fact that the estimates were prepared by officials of the government made the position somewhat anomalous. He suggested that this was a proper time to recommend to the Dominion government some new method of voting money to the Assembly.

The estimates were as follows, being for 8 months from November 1st:—

ESTIMATED RECEIPTS

Auctioneers' licenses.....	$ 350.00
Gilliam's licenses.....	300.00
Commissioners for affidavits.....	20.00
Ferry licenses.....	50.00
Fines under ordinances.....	200.00
Fines under Dom statutes.....	1,500.00
Legal ordinance fees.....	200.00
Medical do.....	150.00
Liquor permits.....	3,000.00
Dining cars.....	50.00
Beer permits.....	3,500.00
Marriage licenses.....	250.00
Notaries fees.....	40.00
Pedlars licenses.....	187.00
Incorporation of companies.....	200.00
Foreign companies.....	400.00
Sale of ordinances.....	150.00
Due by school districts.....	102.00
N.W.T. Gazette.....	100.00
Bal gen rev fund S-pt 1st.....	1 968.86
Balanc Dom appropriation.....	92,765.69
	105 484.90

The conclusion of the report, including the estimated expenditure, is crowded out by the crush of matter upon our space.

THE MORMON SETTLEMENT.

Mr. Bigger's, D. L. S., Observations of the Settlement.

Quite a number of the settlers from Lee's Creek were in town after lumber and provisions this week and returned home yesterday. Mr. C. A. Bigger, who has been subdividing some townships close by the settlement this summer, has had an opportunity of seeing something of the Utah settlers and says that the settlement is one that he would have pride in taking visitors to as giving an example of the agricultural possibilities of the country. They have been there only two seasons, but already they have put in the solid improvements of old settlements. Their roads have been made and are well graded; they have planted large quantities of trees; their gardens are thoroughly worked and in the best of order, all indications of the genuine thrift and sturdy energy of the newcomers. The plan of the settlement is a village in which all the houses are located; the homesteads or rather farms, lying out on the adjoining bench lands. As to the religious tenets of these people, they profess to be strict followers of the Apostle Joseph Smith, but they claim to have eschewed polygamy, and none of the male settlers are comforted to more wives than the law of the country allows.

BENTON TO LETHBRIDGE.

All Ready to go Ahead With the Southern Railway.

Mr. Wilkie, a civil engineer from St. Paul, arrived today, and is preparing to start out on a survey of the railroad from Fort Benton to Lethbridge, N. W. Territory. Mr. D. W. Barclay, the well known railroad engineer and locator, will be in charge of the party, and in company with Mr. Donald Grant, the world-renowned railroad contractor, will arrive in Fort Benton on Monday or Tuesday next. Mr. Wilkie was sent on in advance to have everything ready by the time Messrs. Barclay and Donald Grant arrived here. There is no longer any doubt as to the building of the Galt road from Lethbridge to Fort Benton.—Benton River Press.

Mr. Barclay, the engineer-in-chief of the N. W. C. & N. Railway and the new Benton Line, came in from Benton yesterday. He was accompanied by the famous contractor, Mr. Donald Grant, but their stay here was of brief duration, as they returned again this morning. While here it was learned that their object in driving over the country was to select a suitable location for the road, the survey of which will be commenced on their return to Benton, where Mr. Barclay's assistants are now making necessary arrangements. The two ends of the road are to be Lethbridge and Benton and Mr. Barclay's present object is to determine which is the best route to pursue in connecting them.

From other sources it is learned that the rails for the line have already been ordered from England; they are to be of standard size and weight and of the best of steel, and contractors in the mountains are already at work getting out a large quantity of ties.—Lethbridge News.

THE MINE.

NORTHWEST COAL.

Mr. Maltby on the Future of our Mining Industry.

Mr. Maltby, an eminent mining engineer, of Chicago, who has been prospecting for coal and examining locations in Alberta and British Columbia during the summer for the C. P. R. was in the city Tuesday on his way to Montreal to submit his report to the directors. Mr. Maltby informed a Call representative that he had been working chiefly on the Crowfoot Creek, fifteen miles east of Gleichen and a few miles north of the C. P. R. A shaft was struck in that locality a couple of years ago, but as it filled up with water and as the operators had no machinery to pump it out the work was abandoned. Mr. Maltby continued this shaft to a depth of 470 feet, penetrating four seams of coal, the first being eighteen inches thick; the second nine inches, and the third and principal one nine feet. Mr. Maltby continued this seam and took out several car loads of coal which was tested in the C. P. R. locomotives with highly satisfactory results. This bed of coal, Mr. Maltby says, extends from near the C. P. R. where outcroppings are seen, to the Red Deer river, a distance of thirty-five or forty miles. The coal is similar to the Lethbridge coal but while it has a strong bluish tinge it emits no smoke, and is suitable for steam and domestic purposes. Mr. Maltby made an examination of the coal at Cochrane where a company has been mining on the outcroppings. He says that good coal will not be obtained there until deeper shafts are sunk to the beds that have not been affected by the upheaval of the mountains. He also says that the Canadian Anthracite Company make a mistake in working the outcropping instead of sinking deep shafts.—Morning Call 5th.

Hat Creek Mines.

Chas McNicholl, of Ashcroft, who, in company with Geo. Finney, has a claim on Hat Creek, some 15 miles Northwest from Ashcroft, was in town this week and a Sentinel scribe learned from him that coal in paying quantities has been struck. During the past summer a six foot shaft has been struck on the claim 55 feet in depth. After removing a surface covering of clay some six feet in thickness the first seam was struck, and seams of various thickness were penetrated the entire depth of the shaft—solid coal. It is the intention of the firm to mine during the winter with the present shaft, and next season it will be sunk another hundred feet. The coal is being used in and about Ashcroft every day and gives entire satisfaction. Some ten tons has been delivered there already and Mr. McNicholl says they have contracted to deliver sixty tons more during the winter, the people in that town are going to give it a thorough test. The outlook is very promising for a large trade from the Ashcroft mine, and those who know Charley McNicholl will be pleased to learn of his success. Sample sacks will be forwarded to Kamloops in a few days, and we will then be able to give a better idea of the value of the coal for cooking and heating purposes. Should it prove satisfactory, and we hope it may, there can be no doubt the owners of the mine have a bonanza which they will fully develop, both being possessed of pluck and enterprise. If reasonable transportation rates can be secured it is hard to estimate the extent the trade will develop into.—Inland Sentinel.

ENGLAND AND GERMANY.

A Sensation over Their Views on African Affairs.

LONDON 6.—Quite a sensation has been caused in political circles, both here and on the Continent, and wide attention attracted generally, by a semi-official note published in the Berlin press. The note contains a protest against the opposition of England to the efforts of Germany in Zanzibar. It asserts that the anti-German tendencies prevail in England, and the co-operation in African schemes that might be given to Germany is, through their influence, denied. "Germany is forced to conclude," says the note, "that England does not need Germany's friendship." Then follows what may be looked on as a warning to the insular power:—"It is true that it is improbable that situations may arise in the immediate future in which England may feel the want of friendship from a Continental power, but such a condition of affairs is not impossible." The note is but the legitimate outcome of a feeling that has long existed in Germany over the hesitancy of English politicians to commit the British Government to the doubtful policy of assisting Germany to help herself to whatever benefits the east coast of Africa may present. The ostensible subject of the desired co-partnership is to root out the slave trade and to make East Africa and Zanzibar safe for Europeans as a colonizer and reclamer of savage countries England has greater success than Germany, and the latter know this, and for this reason longs for English assistance. But England does not propose to help Germany colonize Africa, and this is why the co-operation is denied.

THE WEEK'S LOCAL NEWS

Wednesday.

Invitations are out for a ball at Dr. Laflerty's residence tomorrow night.

Every ratepayer who can possibly do so should attend this evening's meeting, to hear the gift and scheme discussed.

There will be a grand carnival at the Star Hotel before Christmas. Prepare your costumes in time.

A proposal is made to establish a night school in Calgary. Several young men have already offered themselves as pupils. Others desiring to join can send in their names to this office.

A vestry meeting of the Church of the Redeemer was held last evening, when it was decided to build a parochial hall at a cost of $2000. The building will be used temporarily as a synod hall and the proposed church school for young women.

Mr. Henry Fisher of Willowbank, near Milton, in the County of Halton, Ont., who arrived here in September wishes a correction to be made of a mistake made in this paper of Sept. 8th, in which it is stated that he was the owner of 500 acres of land in Ontario and that the crops about Halton were very poor this year. The paragraph should have read 100 acres, while the report as to crops appears to have got mixed up with reports from other parts of Ontario.

The Phantasmagoria company gave a rehearsal before some of the members of the press last evening. The entertainment consisted of a chatty lecture on the Canadian Pacific, illustrated by a fine series of panoramic views along the route from photographs by Adams, Brown & May. These splendid views are a credit to the artistic skill of the well known Calgary firm and give a splendid idea of the diversified scenery of the C. P. R. route. The company will give two entertainments in the Royal Opera House this week, on Thursday and Friday evenings. By way of variety, vocal and instrumental music will be introduced.

Thursday.

Everybody interested in the question of providing a public library should attend the meeting called by the mayor for this evening.
